

Getting Ready To Go Camping

* I need to keep my stuff together, organized and ready to carry. Packing for a campout has been described as a bag full of bags. Rolling clothes, gathering sets with rubber bands, Zip-Loc bags or ditty bags allows the contents of a bag or backpack to stay organized and separates the clean dry clothes from the dirty and/or wet clothes. In the chaos of a scout's tent or a winter cabin marking personal items can go a long way

* I like to eat and drink.

Being environmentally conscious and thrifty means that everyone brings
,ing kit. There are manly hoiceus andit can be as simple as a larges

I like I need to find out how to be preparedk.

